

349—1.3(28) Availability. Community empowerment areas are statewide to promote collaboration among state and local education, health, and human services, consumers, business, faith organizations and public and private organizations to reach the desired results.